It's harder still when you're my age, at 52. I didn't want to just retire; I wanted to start something new. We wanted to give something back." Seu Jorge is an accomplished actor of Brazilian descent best known for his roles in movies like Broken Arrow and Rain Man, but he also has a real-life passion for volunteering and giving back to his local community. As a result, he has been working to create his own network of educational programs, one day at a time. We talked to Seu Jorge about his charitable endeavors and what he's learned from these experiences. What led you to become a volunteer, and why? I've been volunteering for a long time, and it started with my mother taking me to Meals on Wheels when I
